EGYPT - CAIRO

Your experiences and growth are of utmost importance to us, as we encourage you to extract the maximum value from every moment. Join us on a transformative journey in the land of the Pharaohs, where mystery, history, and leadership converge for an unforgettable adventure.

Egypt, a captivating land steeped in mystery, seamlessly weaves together a tapestry of a robust cultural identity and a heritage that echoes through the ages. The colossal monuments of Ancient Egypt stand as awe-inspiring testaments to the country's rich history. The desert, with its scorching heat, breathtaking sights, and radiant light, invigorates the senses, while the cool, turquoise waters provide a rejuvenating escape. Embarking on a romantic cruise along the world's longest river becomes a sensory spectacle, and indulging in a first-class getaway at a resort in the Red Sea Riviera offers pure escapism. Nowhere else encapsulates the magic, mystery, and pleasures quite like Egypt. Partnering a challenging yet enriching destination for leadership development. Our unique projects and leadership offerings are designed to empower a generation and spark a youth movement. Together, we invite you to immerse yourself in an experience where personal growth, leadership skills, and cultural exchange are paramount. Your journey with us is not just a visit; it's an opportunity to discover a world of wonder, both within Egypt's historic landscapes and through the lens of transformative leadership development.

JOYS AROUND CAIRO !!

Giza Pyramids and the Sphinx

The Giza Pyramids are the real must of Cairo. Like the Colosseum in Rome, the Blue Mosque in Istanbul and the Eiffel Tower in Paris, this is the place where you want to go first.

Khan el Khalili is a large typical market with a wide touristic area but many unknown parts to get lost in. It covers a vast area in the part of the city called "Islamic Cairo". Not only you can buy souvenirs as well as spices, handcrafts and fabrics, but also the area offers a lot more.

Khan el Khalili Market and Islamic Cairo

The Citadel

The Citadel is another very touristic landmark, but one of those you can't miss. It's a very peaceful experience, as the area surrounded by the ancient walls of the Citadel is closed to traffic.

Egyptian Museum

Egyptian Museum is one of the must-visit places in Cairo! The value of the collection is invaluable.

improve the looks of the city, and to give people a quiet place to relax.

Al-Azhar Park

Cairo Tower

Cairo Tower is a concrete 187 m (614 ft) high tower. It was built in 1961. Its design is unique, recalling the lotus flower shape. From the top terrace you can have a 360° view over Cairo and also eat something at its revolving restaurant. Cairo Tower is on an island called Zamalek. So you will be surrounded by the Nile, with its feluccas and floating restaurants that make it almost as trafficked as a street.

EATING AROUND CAIRO !!

Grilled pigeons

Rice stuffed pigeons are one of Egypt's favorite meals. 'Farahat', which is considered as one of the most famous restaurants in Cairo

Foul

The king of Egyptian food, as it is cheap, healthy and delicious, and you can try it at any place all over Egypt.

Zalabaya

It comes in different varieties examples: dipped in honey, powdered sugar, milk or white chocolate at 'Batates and Zalabya'.

Koshary

One from the most popular foods in Egypt that contains rice, macaroni, lentils, chickpea, fried onions, sauce and a dressing. You can enjoy this wonderful meal at "Koshary Eltahreer".
