F1 - Branding Strategy, Why this brand?

Choosing F1 as my focus isn't just about motorsport; it's about representing a brand that pushes boundaries and redefines what's possible.

F1 is no longer just a male-dominated arena — it's a platform where women are claiming their space as drivers, engineers, marketers, and decision-makers. My goal is to contribute to that evolution by leveraging creativity and strategy to connect the brand with audiences worldwide, while inspiring more women to step into roles of influence and leadership in the world of motorsport.
